Discover Endless Experiences

Udaipur

Sajjangarh Biological Park

Situated at the foothills of Sajjangarh Palace, popularly known as the Monsoon Palace, Sajjangarh Biological Park is a well-known zoological park home to over 21 species of animals and birds. Visitors can spot fascinating wildlife such as leopards, lions, marsh crocodiles, blackbucks, ostriches, and many other species in a natural and peaceful setting.

Distance from Hotel - 9 km | 23 minutes

Sajjangarh Monsoon Palace

Perched atop a hill on the outskirts of Udaipur, Sajjangarh Palace was once a royal residence of the Mewar dynasty, which ruled the region for centuries. Originally envisioned as a nine-storeyed astronomical observatory to study the arrival and movement of monsoon clouds, the palace eventually came to be known as the iconic Monsoon Palace. Today, it stands as one of Udaipur’s most admired landmarks, offering a glimpse into the city's rich history and stunning panoramic views.

Distance from Hotel - 12 km | 35 minutes

Shilpgram

Rajasthan is renowned for its rich artistic and cultural heritage, with a legacy that has been preserved and celebrated for generations. Across its diverse regions and communities, the state is home to a remarkable variety of traditional art forms, including intricate handicrafts, vibrant paintings, folk music, graceful dance, colourful puppetry, and captivating theatrical performances. Every creation reflects the timeless craftsmanship and cultural spirit of Rajasthan.

Distance from Hotel - 6 km | 14 minutes

Saheliyon ki Bari

Nestled along the shores of Fateh Sagar Lake, Saheliyon Ki Bari is one of Udaipur's most charming and peaceful attractions. Surrounded by lush green gardens, shaded walkways, and elegant fountains, it offers the perfect setting for a leisurely stroll or a quiet moment amidst nature. Rich in history and adorned with beautiful traditional architecture, this royal garden continues to captivate visitors with its timeless beauty and serene atmosphere.

Distance from Hotel - 5 km | 13 minutes

City Palace

Built on the banks of Lake Pichola, the City Palace in Udaipur is regarded as the largest royal complex in Rajasthan. Constructed in 1559, this magnificent palace features an impressive collection of mahals, courtyards, pavilions, corridors, terraces, rooms, and hanging gardens. It also houses a museum that showcases some of the finest examples of Rajput art and culture, including colourful paintings and the distinctive architecture of Rajasthani palaces.

Distance from Hotel - 7 km | 20 minutes

Jagdish Temple

Dedicated to Lord Vishnu, the preserver of the universe, Jagdish Temple is a grand and majestic landmark located within the City Palace Complex in Udaipur. Also worshipped as Lord Lakshmi Narayan, the deity makes this temple one of the city's most important places of worship. Intricate carvings, beautifully crafted statues, and a serene atmosphere add to its timeless charm, making it a peaceful retreat for devotees and visitors alike.

Distance from Hotel - 8 km | 21 minutes

Fateh Sagar Lake

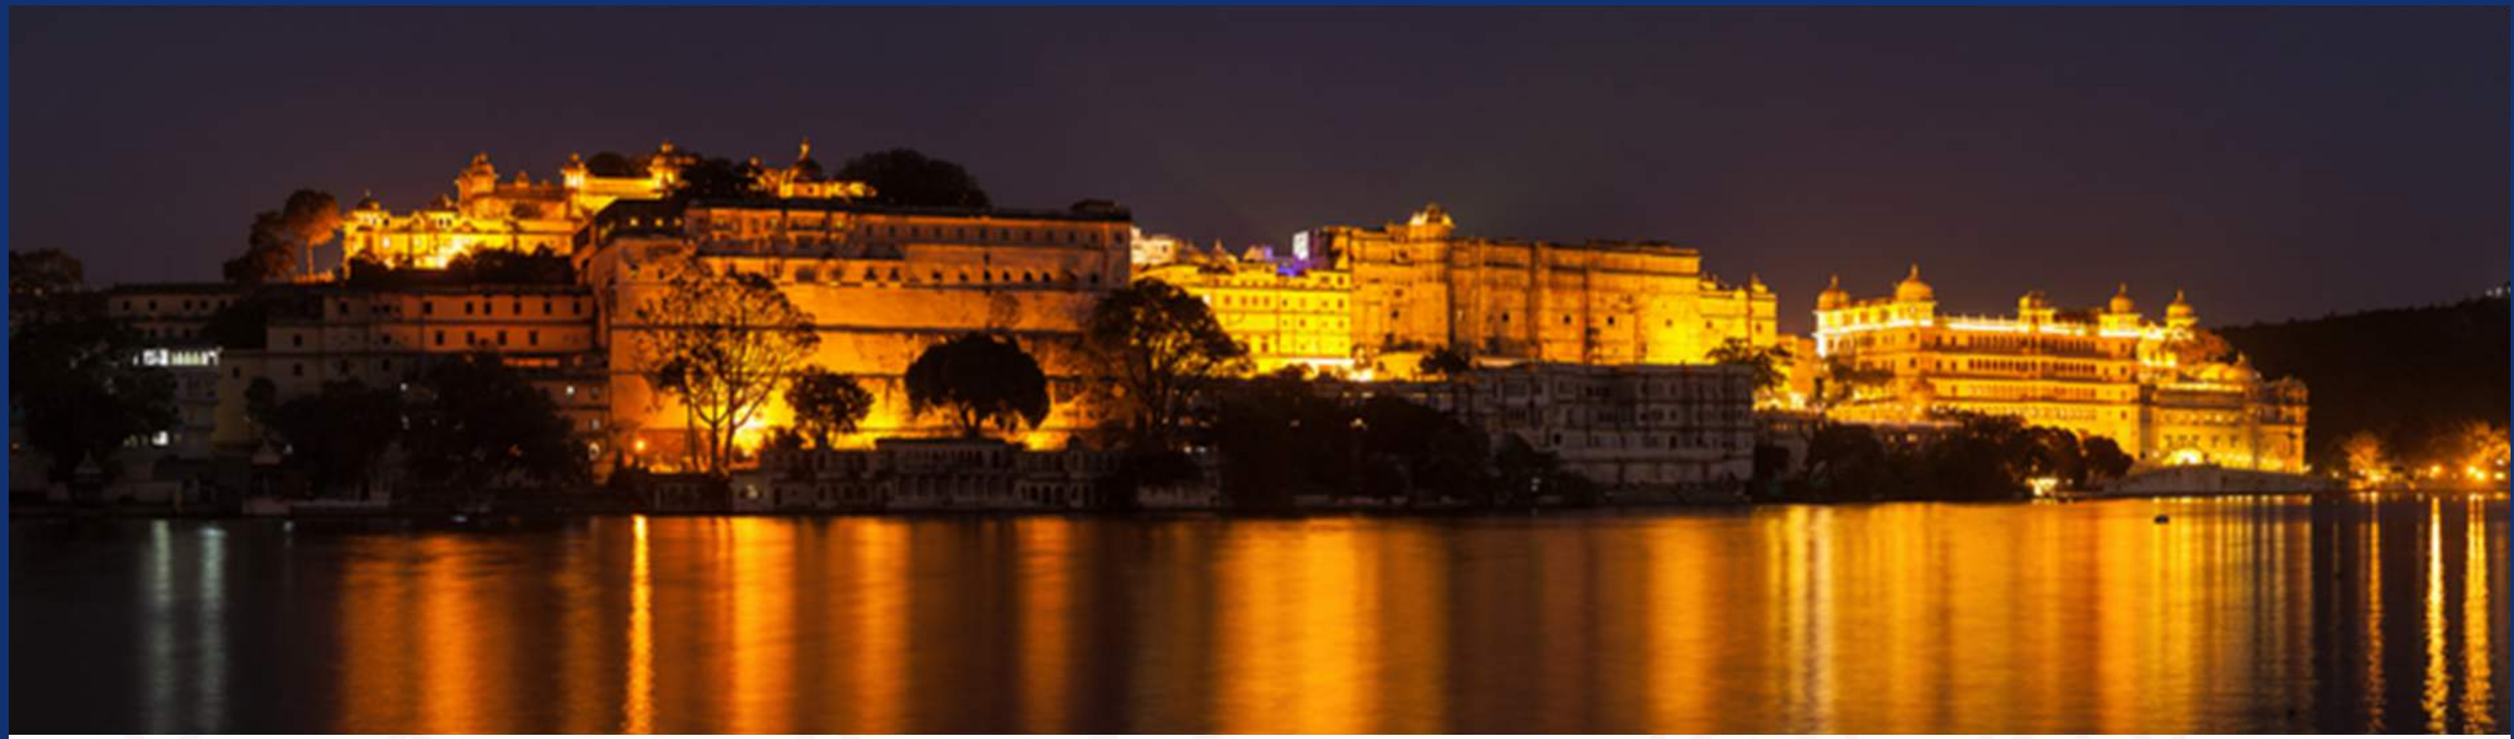
Named after Maharana Fateh Singh of Udaipur and Mewar, Fateh Sagar Lake is a beautiful man-made lake located to the northwest of the city. Built in 1687, it is the second-largest of Udaipur's four lakes and a popular spot for visitors. A boat ride against the scenic backdrop of the Aravalli Hills is a must-have experience, with a variety of boating options available. The lake is especially known for its breathtaking sunsets, making it a perfect place to relax and soak in the beauty of Udaipur.

Distance from Hotel - 5 km | 14 minutes

Maharana Pratap Memorial

Maharana Pratap, one of the most celebrated rulers in Indian and Rajput history, is honoured through the Maharana Pratap Smarak in Udaipur. Deeply respected across Rajasthan and the rest of the country for his courage and legacy, he continues to inspire generations. Situated on the banks of Fateh Sagar Lake, this iconic memorial stands as a tribute to his remarkable life and remains one of the city's most visited landmarks.

Distance from Hotel - 6 km | 16 minutes



Lake Pichola

Discover the timeless beauty of Lake Pichola, one of Udaipur’s most iconic attractions. Surrounded by majestic palaces, historic temples, and scenic hills, this picturesque lake offers a perfect blend of natural beauty and royal charm. Enjoy a relaxing boat ride, admire stunning lakefront views, and witness breathtaking sunsets that paint the waters in golden hues. Whether you're looking for peaceful moments, memorable photographs, or a glimpse of Udaipur’s rich heritage, Lake Pichola offers an unforgettable experience in the City of Lakes.

Distance from Hotel - 7 km | 21 minutes

Ambrai Ghat

Ambrai Ghat, set along the banks of Lake Pichola near the iconic City Palace, is one of Udaipur's most picturesque and peaceful destinations. Offering stunning views of the lake, Jag Mandir, and the Lake Palace, it is a favourite spot among both locals and visitors. Whether you're enjoying a leisurely walk, capturing beautiful photographs, or simply soaking in the tranquil surroundings, the ghat is especially magical during sunrise and sunset.

Distance from Hotel - 8 km | 22 minutes

Gangaur Ghat

Gangaur Ghat, located on the eastern banks of Lake Pichola in the heart of Udaipur, is one of the city's most historic and scenic waterfront spots. Situated near the old city and Bagore Ki Haveli, it holds great cultural and religious significance, especially during festivals like Gangaur and Jal-Jhulni Ekadashi. With its beautiful lake views and vibrant atmosphere, the ghat is a popular destination for photography, leisurely evening walks, and boat rides.

Distance from Hotel - 7 km | 20 minutes

How to Reach

Location

Nearest airport

Maharana Pratap Airport – 24 km

Nearest railway station

Udaipur City Railway Station – 6 km

Nearest bus stand

Udaipur Central Bus Stand (Udaipole) – 7 km