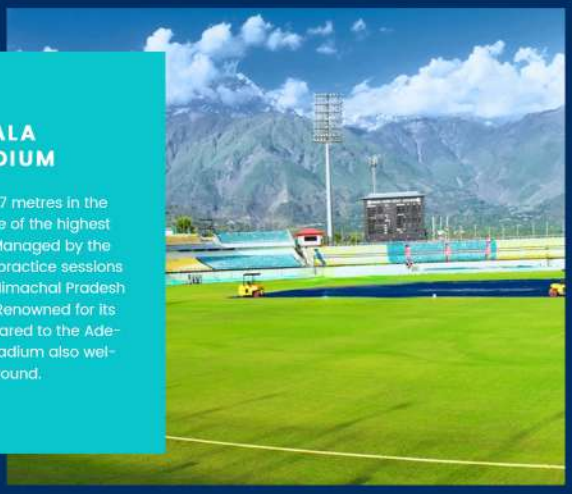
NEARBY ATTRACTIONS



DHARAMSHALA CRICKET STADIUM

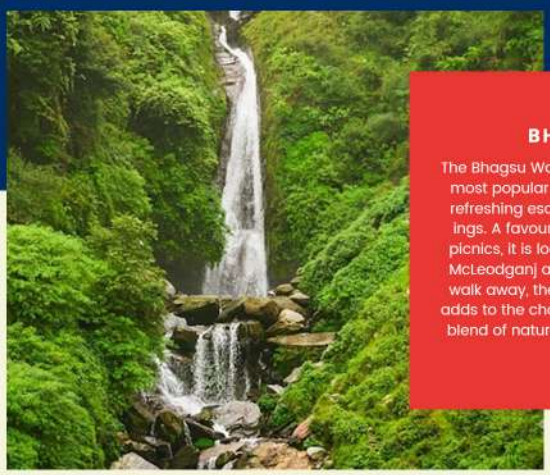
Perched at an elevation of 1,457 metres in the scenic Kangra Valley, this is one of the highest cricket stadiums in the world. Managed by the HPCA, the venue regularly hosts practice sessions for the Indian Cricket Team, the Himachal Pradesh state team, and IPL franchises. Renowned for its breathtaking setting often compared to the Adelaide Oval and Newlands, the stadium also welcomes tourists year-round.

GYUTO MONASTERY

Renowned for its rich tradition of Tantric meditation and Buddhist philosophy, the Gyuto Monastery is one of Dharamshala's most peaceful and picturesque landmarks. Established in India in 1959, it preserves the sacred teachings of the revered master Tsongkhapa. Surrounded by serene landscapes, the monastery offers visitors a glimpse into authentic Buddhist traditions rooted in wisdom, compassion, and spiritual growth.

BHAGSU NAAG TEMPLE

Nestled amidst lush greenery and tranquil surroundings, the Bhagsunag Temple is one of the oldest and most revered temples near McLeodganj, located just 3 km away. Also known as Bhagsunath Temple, it is a sacred pilgrimage site for both the Gorkha and Hindu communities. The two holy pools beside the temple are believed to have healing properties, making it a place of deep faith, peace, and spiritual significance.



BHAGSU FALLS

The Bhagsu Waterfall is one of Dharamshala's most popular natural attractions, offering a refreshing escape amidst scenic surroundings. A favourite spot for nature lovers and picnics, it is located on the road connecting McLeodganj and Dharamshala. Just a short walk away, the revered Bhagsunath Temple adds to the charm, making the area a perfect blend of natural beauty and spiritual significance.
